RAIN AT SARATOGA-GOOD THINGS GO ASTRAY.

Ban Lifted for Jockey Radtke, and Rainey and Trainer May Part Company-Baird Takes French Leave-DeMund Runs an Improved Race at the Spa.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 21.- A hard rain last night brought heavy going for the first three races to-day; then came another downpour that made the footing sloppy for the remainder of the afternoon. The two combinations proved a serious drawback to the racing, but no complaints were heard, for the storm meant relief from the intense heat.

The good things went astray with a regularity that under ordinary conditions would have filled the strong boxes of the gentlemen who make the prices; but the card, difficult of solution in its original shape, was less tempting after the shower, and bettors of all degrees worked along cautious lines, the business being the lightest of the meeting.

business being the lightest of the meeting.

The Merchants' and Citizens' Handicap, the event of the afternoon, failed to bring anything like the contest anticipated. The winner, J. O. Keenes Red Leaf, has been trained continuously for about eighteen months. Last fall, after a hard campaign. she was shipped to California, where she was out with the colors up every few days. In February she was shipped to Hot Springs, where she won a number of races. Memphis was her next field of operation, then to Louiswas her next field of operation, then to bous-ville, and at Kenilworth Park in Buffalo she was kept busy. At Brighton she had three races, then came here, and to-day was her third start of the meeting. She is an under-sized mare, scrawny to look at and about the last one that would be picked out to win a race, if appearance were considered.

The fact that to-day she made practically all the running kills any chance of enthusing over the race. She is and always has been a beginner, and when she can outrun's field practically all the way as she did this afternoon, it speaks rather poorly for the lot behind her. She is likely to go on and win more races, but it will not be a case of merit with her so much as the woful lack of class in the all aged division outside of the two or three topnotchers.

Last week when Jockey Radtke was sus-Last week when Jockey Radtke was suspended by his stable it was said that it would be weeks before he would be seen in the saddle again. The next day it was found that the second call on the boy's services, held by James R. Keene, would permit of his riding for that stable at least. Last Saturday he rode Mohawk II. for Mr. Sanford, and to-day the lid must have been lifted fairly, for Bedkle, had search mounts, and one of them. Radtke had several mounts, and one of them vas for his contract employers, the Raineys. was for his contract employers, the hainers.
All attempts to get the facts of the lifting of the ban against the boy were fruitless. The few familiar with the cause, declined to talk, but the general story was that it was by order of Mr. Rainey and in defiance of the wishes of Trainer May.

With this tale came a repetition of the rumor that "as been current for several days that the Messrs. Rainey and their trainer were about to part company. The stable has been a liberal purchaser this year, going into the market for the very best that has been offered, but returns have been lacking, either through a run of hard luck or mismanagement of some sort. In the absence of confirmation the rumor is given what it is worth, but no one will be surrised to hear within a day or two that May has stepped aside to give way to another

De Mund, the colt which was purchased from Newton Bennington last spring for a reported price of $45,000—although $37,000 is probably a little nearer the correct figureo-day ran the best race since he changed owners, and that was a long way from the showing to be expected of a colt of his cost. He carried 127 pounds and came within a head of winning $600, the winner's portion of the second race. It was, of course, some-thing of an improvement over his previous effort; still to win the Futurity, for which be is being pointed, there must be another and a decided increase of speed and staying owers. To within a furlong of the finish t looked as if at least he would get into the bread winner's list. Then, as Yankee Gun began to close he hung. Radtke, who had nursed him carefully every foot of the route, appreciated the challenge and tried to coax him home, but the colt was not equal to the task imposed, and Yankee Gun beat him a head. It was a good race for the colt in the company, but nothing like what one would Woolwich's victory in the race for maide jockeys was a rather expensive one for his owner, W. A. McKinney, for it cost the latter $455 more than his share of the price to keep the colt. He was entered to be sold for $1,400, but was bid up to $2,400 by Mattle Corbett; then the protecting $5 sent him back to McKin-

It is only a few days ago that Jack Odom Corbett's trainer, made McKinney pay $1,205 to keep the horse, and it is said the war is still on. The reason given is that during the re-cent meeting at Brighton McKinney said one day that if Angler, one of Corbett's string, was beaten in a selling race in which he was entered he (McKinney) would claim him. This McKinney denies, but Corbett evidently does t take the denial seriously, for he does not make a practice of bidding up horses. Jockey Baird, who is under contract to W. H. Snyder, bas packed un his waps and derted without the consent of his employer. Of course, he will not be permitted to ride on any reputable track, but the a is a chance will go into the bushes. Nicholson, his former employer, who was ruled off here last summer at the time the boy's license was revoked has been in town for several days, and is known to have had some long talks with the boy. Hence, Snyder believes this may have induced the boy to run off.

When Baird was suspended it was generally thought the char ar "nsi him had to do with the race in which he managed to get Woodsaw left at the post; but the ruling off of Nicholson made it look as if there were other and stronger reasons to warrant the punish-After a few weet . Mars Cassidy has been engaged to alternate with A. B. Dade at the Oaklawn track in Hot Springa next winter. The meeting there will open on February 4. For the opening the regular crew from the Creecent City track. Clarence McDowell, Frank J. Bryan, Secretary Nathansen and Dade, will officiate. At the end of two weeks they will go back to reopen the Fair Grounds, and Cassidy, who will have been working at City Park, will go to Hot Springs. This alternating will go on to the end of the two meetings.

Crimmins and Koerner have been suspended for four days by the starter for disobedience at the post. Koerner has been warned several times of late, and as cautions seemed to be ineffective he will have a chance to stand on the ground and make good resolutions. While waiting for the post call in the sixth race Radtke, who was bulletined to ride Holscher, was taken ill, and for a time it was thought that there would have to be a shift of jockers. Radtke rallied some and announced he would keep his engagement, but it would have been more pleasing to the colt's backers and his field, then appeared to pull up until he was close to a sixteenth of a mile behind the leaders. Down the backstretch he began to close the gap, and the fact that he was only beaten a short head for third money would seem to tell what would have been the lot of the colt had he beet ridden with the boy's usual skill. He might not have been the winner, Rose of Gold, who earned her victory galloping, but he certainly would have been second.

The colcrs of Adoloh Spreckels were seen for the first time in the Erst on Allia in the second race. Spreckels its trought severil of his string on, and they will be raced at full meetings. was a game in which the Meadow Brooks displayed great team wor, riding fearlessly, and while the first part of the game was pretty even, the latter part of it was decidedly one sided, although the Bryn Mawr team made a spurt at the last period, but too late to pull them out of the hole.

The first period opened with a rush and goal and then the other, the period closing with the score tied at four. But in the second Meadow Brook made three goals to their

but allowed Bryn Mawr one, the score then stending 10 to 5 in favor of Meadow Brook.

Mr. Waterbury was taken to the clubhouse, but he was soon able to resume play, though his leg was stiff during the remainder of the

and was in the game in less time than it takes to tell it.

The star players were the Waterbury boys, as usual, although Beckman played a fine game at back and was where he was needed. Bryn Mawr was erratic in shooting for goals, especially in the last two periods, while earlier in the game the members of the Meadowbrook team tried time and time again to shoot goals, only to miss. The team work of Meadowbrook excelled that of Bryn Mawr, and the winners were better mounted than their opponents.

Oakland's New Holes Ready for Labor Day Competition.

After working on the turf since last fall, the Oakland Golf Club has the additional nine holes of its course ready, and they will be put in commission on Labor Day. The club now has 100 acres in its holdings, an extra fifty acres having been purchased from John H. Taylor, the first president of the club, for a price said to have been $50,000. The original round of 3,010 yards is unchanged, the addition of 3,098 yards being played as the in holes and making a full round of 6,108 yards. The character of the new holes is undulating, as on the first half, and the rest and care given to the grass have made the turf of a superior quality

The distances of the new holes are 318, 335, 535, 230, 285, 263, 585, 147 and 400 yards. The members handicap for Labor Day and all future competitions will be played over the full eighteen hole course. The eighteen holes record, two rounds of the 2,010 yard course, is 75, held by Travis and Collins, the latter the Oakland "pro." There will be a free-for-all race on Labor Day to establish a mark for the extended links.

The Wyantenuck Golf Club's tournament begins to-day with Sherman, Partridge, Bowers and Evans among the entrants.

A general meeting of the Eastern Professional Golfers' Association will be held in this city on September 5. Final action will be taken regarding an annual championship tournament.

The women of the Ocean Country Club, Far Rocksway, will play for the president's cup to-morrow, Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Benjamin and Miss Bijur had 825 on Monday, when Val Flood—who is getting ready to go to Princeton on September 1—playing the best ball of Messrs. Herman and Bijur, made the record for the 2,085 yard course of 32, 34—

NYACK CLUB FALLS IN LINE. me at Tennis Tournament to Make Winner Play Through.

The announcement of the lawn tennis tournament of the Nyack Country Club for September 3 offers a challenge cup for men's singles which calls for the winner each year to play through the tournament. This anto play through the tournament. This announcement and that of the East Jersey L. T. C. offering their challenge cup under like conditions, point to the fact that a general move is being made in this section to do away with the champion "standing out" of the play. There has been a great deal of argument over the advisability of a change and it looks now as if the scheme would be generally adopted.

The New York L. T. C., which offered the Felipe challenge cup this year has under advisement making the rules for the cup that both final and semi-final matches must be played the best three in five sets and that the winner must play through each year.

J. O. KEENE'S MARE PROVES A SURPRISE IN HEAVY GOING.

Tankee Gun Beats De Mund-Sir Ru Woolwich, Cerrigan and Bose of Gold Enable the Talent to Beat the Bookmakers-Martin Bides Two Winners.

Sanatoga, Aug. 21.—The track was heavy to-day, yet five well backed favorites came home in triumph. The Merchants and Citizens: Handicap, at a mile and three-sixteenths, provided a surprise when J. O. Keeme's Red Leaf, a 6 to 1 shot, showed an unmistakable form reversal and won in a gallop. The Hermence mare, with 100 pounds on her back, was taken immediately to the front by Koerner, where she held the others as at all stages and won by two lengths in 2:02. Bedouin, with top weight and quoted at 15 to 1, also and won by two lengths in 2.02. Bedouin, with top weight and quoted at 15 to 1, also displayed sudden improvement in form and got the place by half & dozen lengths from Woodford Clay's Outcome, 2 to 1. The distance was too far for Dolly Spanker, while Ravena, 8 to 5 favorite, quit at the furlong

Sir Russell, an equal favorite with Belle of Pequest at 16 to 5, made all the running in the handleap for three-year-olds, seven furlongs, winning rather easily by half a length from Gen. Haley, 8 to 1, who finished with a great rush and beat Nealon, 8 to 1, by a length. Bill Phillips and Count Martial stopped in the stretch, while Belle of Pequest never had speed at any period and was last. 'The time Was 1:14 4-5.

Jockeys that had never ridden a winner had the mounts in the second race, at a mile. Come put up a neat ride on Woolwich, 6 to 5 favorite, who was all out to beat John A. Drake's Neptunus, 6 to 1, by half a length in 1:42 1-5 Fred Johnson's Aucassin, 10 to 1, was a poor third.

Oscar Lewisohn's Yankee Gun, a Futurity candidate, backed down to 7 to 2, an equal favorite with Arcite, won the third race for two-year-olds, five and a half furiongs. Martin slipped through on the rail with him and in a hot finish Gunfire's half brother won by a head from the $45,000 De Mund, 6 to 1, who made all the pace right up to the last few jumps. The latter showed something like his old form and beat T. Hitchcock Jr.'s Golf Ball, 5 to 1, a length for the place. Rosemount, played down to 6, was a length back, while Arcite was never a factor. The time was 1:07 4-5.

Miller rode his only winner of the day when he breezed home with Corrigan, 9 to 5 favorite, in the fifth event, at a mile and a furiong. Corrigan led from start to finish, beating Macy, Jr., 11 to 5, by half a dozen lengths in 1:37 2-5. Ebony, 6 to 1, was two lengths away.

DAN PATCH'S GREAT MILE, Champion Pacer Reels Off the Distance 1:87 8-4 at Galesburg.

Galessure, Ill., Aug. 21.—The feature of the opening of the trotting meeting here to-day was the wonderful mile paced by the champion, Dan Patch, in 1:57%. He was driven by his trainer, Hersey, and Charles Dean drove the pacemaker with the wind shield, while another pacemake brought up on the outside.

After a warming up mile in a 2:12 Patch After a warming up mile in a 2:12 Patch got the word to a slow start and paced the first quarter in 31½ seconds. When the timers hung out the sign for the half in 1:00 the 10:000 persons in the stand raised a mighty shout. Down the back stretch came the powerful fellow, and the three-quarter pole was passed in 1:23½.

The crowd had swarmed on the track and it took the entire police force of Galesburg to keep them from interfering. Dan came on, however, and with one of his supreme efforts crossed under the wire in 1:57%, the fastest mile ever paced on a track in Illinois.

LONG PRACTICE ROWS.

Harvard Stroke Varies; Cambridge Maintains as 4 Clip.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.

BOURNE END, England, Aug. 21.—Both crews had long practice rows this morning. The Harvard eight started from Stonehouse and travelled to Spade Oak Ferry. They rowed a stroke varying from thirty to thirty—six to the minute. At the start it was thirty—four and presently dropped to thirty—six on the coaching bench. He did not look well. Glass, the other incapacitated member of the crew, is in London, where he is undergoing electric treatment for water on the kines.

The Harvard crew showed much improved form in the paddle from Marlow Point to Bourne End Bridge. The time was 12 minutes 25 seconds. Wray declared himself well actished with the work. Glass returned from London to-day with his knee in a bandage, but able to hop about. He is not expected to be back in the boat for several days.

PRAISE FOR MISS SUTTON, And a Cartoon of Her, Too, in British Tennis Paper. .

The official British paper, Laun Tennis prints a cartoon of Miss May Sutton in the regular series that has been running in the regular series that has been running in the magazipe. Accompanying the cartoon is a little apprecation which winds up with: "Miss Sutton is a born match player and is possessed of iron nerves. Though we may almost claim this fair daughter of Columbia as a native of this country, yet to America is due the credit of producing such a phenomenal player, and great as has been her success up to the present, he would be a bold man indeed who could prophesy that we have as yet seen Miss Sutton at the zenith of her powers."

The Cincinnati Ciub has recalled Infielder Mowrey from Baltimore, and he will take part in the series against the New Yorks.

Chicago need not be putting on any airs. What if they do win two pennants there? Boston is preparing to win two celler championships.

Jiggs Donohue seems to be as cocksure of catches with one hand as with two. If he doesn't care to exert his left hand he simply shoves his gloved hand out, and the ball sticks there.

"Thomas is Bill drown all over again," observed exert his left hand he simply snoves his gloved hand out, and the ball sticks there.

"Thomas is Bill drown all over again," observed Mickey Welch, who saw the game at American League Park last Monday. "He carries himself like Brown and has all of his actions."

Treasurer Fredericks of the Chicago Americans thinks the White Sox will win the pennant by sufficient margin not to be under a strain just before tackling the Cubs. "And we'll give them a battle too," he says.

"The fact that there are fewer 300 hitters in the National League than there are in the American must not be ascribed to weak hitting, but to the amperior pitching of the National League twirlers, says Red Dooin of the Phillies. That being the case, the National League could make its game more attractive by getting rid of syme of its "superior pitchers."

The average number of points between first place and the tail end in twelve professional leagues is 291. The most scattering race of the twelve is in the Nati nai League, where, on Menday last, there was a difference of $50 points. At that time there were 205 points difference in the American League, 250 in the American Association, 340 in the Central League, 283 in the South Atlantic, 206 in the Northern Copper, 355 in the Western, 225 in the Kitty, 245 in the Estern, 212 in the Three 1, 256 in the Oblopenserywants, and 216 in the Southers.

AMONG THE AUTOMOBILISTS.

BETTING ODDS AGAINST VANDER-BILT CUP RACERS.

Barney Oldfield May Drive Matheson Ma-chine in the Contest—Seven Events on the Empire City Track Programme— Boston's Partnership Arrangement. The formal announcement of the course to be used for this year's Vanderbilt cup race and American elimination trials was the chief topic of discussion in the automobile district on upper Broadway yesterday. Several par-ties of New York Motor Club members who were lunching at the headquarters waxed so enthusiastic over the race that they fell to talking over the chances of the different cars and drivers to qualify for the American team. The members of one party made up what they thought would be the betting values of the different machines. The Thomas, with two experienced French drivers and one well known American, was installed as favorite at 2½ to 1 against, while the three Frayer-Millers were put down at 6 to 1. The Locomobile, on account of its good showing last year and because Joe Tracy will drive it again, was because Joe Tracy will drive it again, was listed at 3½ to 1, with the Pope-Toledo and Maineson entries each at 5 to 1. The Maxwell and Oldsmobile were figured at 10 to 1, the Christie at 12 to 1, the Haynes at 15 to 1 and the Apperson and B. L. M. each at 25 to 1. These figures did not meet with the approval of those at a neighboring table, and they accordingly made up a slate as follows: Thomas, 8 to 5; Locomobile, 2½ to 1; hristie, 5 to 1; Oldsmobile, 8 t. 1; Pope-Toledo, 10 to 1; 5 to 1: Oldsmobile, 8 t , 1; Pope-Toledo, 10 to 1; Matheson and Frayer-Miller, 12 to 1: Haynes, 20 to 1: Apperson and Maxwell, 25 to 1, and Barney Oldfield, who heretofore has devoted his energies to track and beach driving exclusively, may be at the wheel of one of the fifteen candidates for a place on the American team in the Vanderbilt cup race. It was reported along Automobile row yesterday that the pilot of the Green Dragon would drive the Matheson racer in the American elimination trials over then Nassau circuit on September 22. When the Matheson car was entered as a candidate for the American Vanderbilt cup team Ralph Monjini was named as the driver.

Monjini was named as the driver.

Seven events make up the programme for the two days race meet which is to be run at the Empire City track on August 31 and september 1. The feature race will be a 1,000 mile contest, styled the Internationa Endurance Derby, open to fully equipped touring cars or touring runabouts, in which Barney Oldfield, Tom Cooper, Guy Vaughan and Charles G. Wridgway are likely competitors. There will be three events at three miles each for fully equipped cars listing at less than $1,000, $2,000 and $3,000, respectively. Cars listing above $2,000 will have a five name race, and there will be a free-for-all in which cars that have won heats or races of one mile in less than a minute will be barred. There will also be the Empire City Sweepstakes, an invitation affair, with the distance to be determined later.

It is reported that the Chicago Automobile Club is planning to hold a 200 mile road race sometime nextmonth. It has been proposed to rin the contest over a twenty-five mile triangular course, starting from Libertyville, Ill., to be covered eight times by the competing cars. If the contest is held the roads will be oiled thoroughly and ample provision will be made to guard the course. The prize will be a cup donated by President John Farson of the American Automobile Association, who also is the head of the local Chicago organization.

According to a story from Boston, the Codfish City has gone into partnership with its Mayor in the ownership of an automobile. A car was purchased for $4,000, of which Mayor Fitzgerald is said to have paid $1,000. The automobile is to be used by the heads of the various city departments on municipal business.

will develop as much speed as one with twice the horse-power and increased weight.

"Our car will develop 60 horse-power and weigh about 1,500 pounds. As far as we can determine, its speed will average about eighty miles an hour. The light weight of the car will go far to help us finish with a creditable showing, as tire trouble will be minimized, the racer being fitted with removable rims. Our machine will have another great advantage, because its wheel base will be very short. The exact length has not been fixed, but it will not be more than 110 inches. I have been told by racing drivers that the victory of Hemery in last year's Vanderblit race was due partly to his ability to make turns very fast because of the short wheel base of his Darracq. We have not definitely settled yet whether our car will be driven by a shaft or chains, but hope that Keeler will be one of the five leaders in the elimination trials."

"One of the most annoying occurrences of the automobile driver's existence is the transient flicking of the sun light on stray particles of broken glass lying in the road says the Motor World. "Usually they do not appear soon enough to give him warning of their presence in time to avoid them. There is an impression of helpless disgust, a sickening crunch under the tires, and that is all. Or possibly, on aspulse, a quick swerve is made and, if running rapidly, the machine all but toppies over into the gutter. Seldom, however, does it happen that the crunching sound is missed, no matter how much out of the ordinary track the peril may lie. runching sound is missed, no matter how much out of the ordinary track the peril may lie.

"There are plenty of local statutes prohibiting the casting away of broken glass in the streets. Unfortunately, however, prosecutions seem few and far between, and numerous though the infractions may be, what convictions are landed seem not to affect the practice one way or the other. On the other hand, it is fortunate that the areas where broken glass is likely to be discovered usually are limited to the streets of towns and villages. Here the motorist is restricted by law, caution and decency to maintain a moderate rate of speed, and when so doing can, in many instances, avoid the danger of injury to the tires by skilful driving. Yet, even so, he cannot always escape.

"It would seem, therefore, that until an age of universal enforcement of all law shall have come the nuisance will continue. And further, it would appear that the expensive consequences will be felt more or less by all motorists. Yet, to those who will insist upon driving without regard to the rational need of moderate speed in such places will come the greatest punishment."

President Pulliam of the National League yesterday officially turned down the protest of the New York Club against the forfeiture the game to Chicago on August 7. In his The Chicago Club appeared on the field in uniform prepared to play the game. Umpires Johnstone and Emslie were on hand to umpire the game but the New York Club, in gross violation of the Vational League constitution, did refuse Umpire Johnstone admittance to the playing field. Two impires having been assigned one could not and would not work with one barred, the assignment ening a double one and not a single one. My finding in the matter is that the claim of the New York Tub, judged from any angle, either in sportshanship, law or equity, is empty and groundless, he position of the Chicago Club is absolutely massallable.

The New York Club has a constitutional

The New York Club has a constitutional right appeal from this finding to the board of director of the National League, and I trust it will all itself of this prerogative and give the club rivers of this league an opportunity to choose tween anarchy and law and order in the conbetween anarchy and law and order in the conduct of affairs.

My only regret in this matter is that no appeal lies to the national commission, for about like to have the members of "the Supreme Court of baseball" afforded the privilege of putting their stamp of condemnation upon this attempt to introduce the atrong arm methods of the garrote into professional baseball.

SERIES LOST TO CHICAGO. NEW YORK CHAMPIONS AGAIN

FOUND WANTING.

Their Third Defeat in the Batch of Four Games and Pennant Changes Lessen Materially—Pirates Down the Brooklyns and Come Close to McGraw's Men.

A most important series in the pennant race, that between the New Yorks and Chi-cagos, just closed, found the Champions wanting, and their pennant chances, siready slim, grew beautifully less. The Cubs won slim, grew beautifully less. The Cubs won again yesterday, taking three out of four and capturing the season's series between the two teams. The Chicagos have won twelve games out of nineteen, and there are only three more to be played. The Pirates defeated the Brooklyns and are in position to snatch second place away from the New Yorks in the series which begins in Pittsburg to-day. The results: to-day. The results:
